A Golf Magazine Silver Medal Resort, Waikoloa Beach Resort is situated on 1,350 acres of the beautiful Kohala Coast on the Big Island of Hawaii – the Golf Capital of the Aloha State. Waikoloa features two fabulous golf courses with unique layouts specifically designed to challenge shot-making skills while letting golfers enjoy the magnificent beauty of the Big Island: views of the majestic, often-times snow-capped Mauna Kea Mountain and the warm, tranquil Pacific Ocean.

Waikoloa Kings' Course, created by British Open champion Tom Weiskopf with design partner Jay Morrish is, appropriately, a Scottish-links style layout in paradise.

The 7,064-yard, par-72 track meanders in and out of ancient lava fields and features 83 strategically placed sand traps and pot bunkers along with other authentic links golf trappings such as double greens and undulating fairways.

Waikoloa's Beach Course, designed by the vaunted Robert Trent Jones, Jr., leads players to the Pacific Ocean along a breathtaking coastline to enjoy stunning views of humpback whales off shore. The holes of the spectacular 6,566-yard, par-70 course weave through strategically placed water features, 74 newly restored bunkers, and ancient lava fields down to the surf's edge. The highlight of the course is the signature hole, the par 5 7th, one of the most beautiful holes in all of Hawaii and the world.

The Waikoloa Beach Resort also features spectacular sand beaches, and first-class accommodations at the Hilton Waikoloa Village and the Waikoloa Beach Marriott Resort & Spa featuring a variety of water activities, hiking trails, spas, tennis, entertainment, shopping, and fine dining.

The Waikoloa Beach Resort is a popular gathering place for visitors, families, golfers and residents. It is truly a Kohala Coast oasis where guests can comfortably share in the celebration of Hawaiian culture and a relaxed lifestyle.
